LIFE IN EXILE

Water covers more than three-fourths of our Earth; we came from water; we are made of water; we are baptized with water; we return to water. Our existence on dry land is actually time in exile. The world's biggest mountain range is more than 11,000 miles long midway between America, Europe, and Africa at an average depth of 13,000 feet. Lava flowing from the crest crevice continues to push the continents apart at a rate of one-inch per year. Earth's largest and smallest beings live in water. Seventy-one percent of Earth's surface is under sea water! Mankind has always sought a way to live in this natural habitat. An Assyrian relief of 885 BC shows a diver breathing underwater using an air-filled leather bag. Alexander the Great was pictured in a diving chamber. Jules Verne's 1869 novel, "Twenty-thousands Leagues Under the Sea," is not only a classic, but a favorite even today. Nemo's Nautilus (length 230 feet x 26 feet) is almost precisely the size of our current nuclear submarines.

278 years ago the "Devil's Brother" hid his frigate beneath 20 feet of water off the coast of Beaufort, North Carolina. Blackbeard's pride and joy was the 40 gun, 103 foot "Queen Anne's Revenge." Standing on deck with burning cannon wicks protruding from his beard, he used her to raze more than 20 English ships. November 21, 1996, one day before the anniversary of Blackbeard's death in 1718, Scuba Diver Mike Daniel found a pile of cannons that marked the resting place of Blackbeard's flagship. This month marine archaeologists confirmed the find and showed off some of the artifacts, including a 1709 bronze bell.

The infamous pirate captain Blackbeard (Edward Teach from Bristol, England) staged a two-year reign of terror in the Caribbean and along the Atlantic coast. A fearsome ogre, Teach tortured his captives and even forced one man to eat his own ears! Queen Anne's Revenge hit a sandbar and sank in 1718. Blackbeard was captured and beheaded later that year by British troops on North Carolina's Ocracoke Island. No coins or gold ingots have been reported, but Blackbeard's ship represents a treasure trove in physical history.

America has 12,383 miles of coastline and 88,633 miles of shoreline. Our Atlantic, Gulf, and Pacific coast waters are rich in submerged vessels, hardware, cargo, and remains of travelers throughout the ages. The USS Monitor rests at 230 feet on the bottom of the Gulf Stream near Cape Hatteras, North Carolina. In May 1992, 50 years after a U-boat was sunk off the Carolina coast, divers arranged the rendezvous of survivors from the German Submarine U-352 and the Coast Guard cutter Icarus to visit the site and salute their comrades lost to the sea.

What's your opinion concerning the Loch Ness Monster? Besides history, there is plenty of mystery associated with the deep. On June 30, 1915, the German Submarine U-28, under Commander Georg-Gunther von Forstner sank the English ship Iberian, 60 miles off the south-west corner of Ireland. The steamer exploded under water hurling a 60 foot long crocodile-like creature into the air! This event was witnessed and logged by no less than seven officers and men of U-28. Some 2,000 years ago near Naples, at Lake Lucrine, it is recorded that a boy made the acquaintance of a dolphin while walking a mile around the lake to school. As the friendship grew, the boy entered the water to play. Eventually the dolphin, named Simo, was observed carrying the boy on its back across the large lake to and from school. After several years the boy fell ill and died. For a long time Simo was seen waiting for his friend. The dolphin also died – "Nobody doubted that it had pined to death." A dolphin's brain is as large as ours. What wonders remain possible for people willing to master creation?

GOLD – A MOST NOBLE METAL

Tom Mulloy found a 73-pound silver ingot on a shallow water shipwreck off the Massachusetts coast, but Mel Fisher recovered millions in gold aboard the "Nuestra Senora de Atocha." Before Mel's personal find 20 July 1985, he used a very sensitive magnetometer to uncover another man's treasure. An architect, Kip Wagner, was walking along the shore just north of Vero Beach, Florida in 1955. A hurricane had devastated the area. Wagner noticed something "glinting," it was a rectangular piece of silver – an early 1700 "piece-of-eight." A Spanish fleet laden with gold and silver had gone down along the coast in 1715 – in a hurricane. Wagner spent $15 for a surplus mine detector. He found an old ship's hook, a cannon ball, and some boarding knives. He flew over the shallow off-shore water in a light plane and spotted a great long elliptical shadow – with ribs. A diver the next day uncovered 18 cannons! Wagner secured a Florida salvage license obligating him to forfeit 25% to the state. Ten years later, they were still looking for the "treasure." That's when they called Mel Fisher.

Mel used his magnetometer to chart the actual cache in the ships hull. "Suddenly the clouds of sand and shell parted. There before our unbelieving eyes, lay a carpet of 1,000 gold doubloons." They ultimately found more than twice that number, plus thousands of silver coins valued at more than a million dollars. According to Wagner – "The money value seems almost meaningless. The real treasure lies in our having touched hands with history."

On September 6, 1622, King Philip IV's heavily laden treasure galleon, "Our Lady of Atocha," sank on a reef off the Florida Keys. 264 souls were lost, many of royal blood, along with more than 47 troy tons of treasure along 50 miles of ocean bottom. 300 years later (almost to the day) Mel Fisher transitioned from water to air breather. For more than 20 years Mel harbored a dream of recovering the Atocha's gold. He sold off his part of Wagner's find trying to secure investors for his own search. It wasn't easy. Mel's life was further darkened on 20 July 1975, when his salvage boat, "The Northwind" sank over the wreck site claiming the life of his son, Dirk, Dirk's wife, and a third crew member. Mel kept up his search until the Atocha finally gave up its 365 year old mother lode. Vicci has a set of earrings made from a 75 pound Atocha silver ingot.

Gold is such a noble metal, remaining pure and untainted through all generations of time, waiting to be reclaimed. Last month CNN announced a "billion dollar" discovery, the largest in history. Saint Augustine is America's oldest city. How many Spanish vessels fell victim to storm and violence along this Florida waterway? How much of interest do you supposed abides in the bodies of water near you?

I've always liked reading books from the back first. Diving is that way – you see what happened in the end, first. Unlike the sea, there is seldom above-ground physical evidence of the travails of mankind. Only those skilled in breathing and functioning underwater have a right of seas- trespass to this underwater preserve. Scuba has opened a fascinating new element of our planet to any with the spirit of discovery and desire for knowledge of the enchanting world of inner space. If you have ever thought that there are no more earthly frontiers to conquer, join us 14-19 April at Forty Fathom Grotto.

AN UNEXPECTED GIFT

What would the world pay for a book from God containing the secret to exaltation and everlasting life in Heaven? How many people study the Bible? The public will pay ridiculous amounts for diets, cosmetics, cable television, vacations, computer games, trendy clothes, transportation, college courses, get rich schemes, and insurance, but ignore the best things in life. I thought to offer a gift in our Spike Training. No place on Earth could you receive the type of classes available through Spike. Spike Airborne was designed not only to train experts in air-land and parachute operations, but give you a key to unlocking a higher realization and appreciation of life. My final spiritual gift comes through Spike Scuba.

The real life-masters are people who expand beyond the normal range of human existence to acquire knowledge and confidence the timid can never know. This month in Florida, Spikers will gather to share a new dimension – life and creation far beyond that perceived by surface beings. This universe contains incredible extremes of organisms, terrain, resources, volume, and potential. Your life will never be the same once enriched by this unique experience and skill. I want so very much for you to be with us. I'm putting this newsletter in the mail early. Please be at the rendezvous on 14 April. I promise you thrills of a lifetime. My beautiful mermaid daughter, Melody (NAUI), handsome young David Day (PADI), world renowned Hal Watts and his PSA staff, Jim, and I (USSF-UWO) will treat you to the fantastic world beneath the seas.

$400 pays for all training and use of equipment. If there was anything equivalent, it would cost many times this price. All equipment and instruction is included, plus your Spike Scuba Manual, Graduation Certificate, and Badge. Vicci will check each of you in at the Grotto and make certain all the paperwork is right for your PADI certification. America West has some ultra low air fares to Jacksonville.

Everyone will spend the first three days qualifying and reviewing under the auspices of the Professional Association of Diving Instructors, National Association Underwater Instructors, Professional Scuba Associates, and U.S. Special Forces diving curriculum. Those Spikers desiring a PADI or NAUI International Open Water Dive Card must present two "passport photos," completed application forms, and $10 PADI/NAUI fee. ALL ACTUAL DIVES ARE VOLUNTARY. Just like Spike Airborne, you may elect to attend all surface classes without participating in the "wet work." Volunteers will conduct one performance dive per day as part of a group to demonstrate mastery of specific underwater tasks. ALL SPIKERS NOT ALREADY ENROLLED MUST CALL 208-935-1325 ASAP TO RECEIVE THE SPIKE SCUBA MANUAL. You must have read this basic underwater reference before your first dive. All PADI/NAUI card recipients must pass a written test. Claudia will guide you through a "teaching exam" on the first day.

Jim will help each of you "suit-up" with a proper fit and Divemaster inspection before entering the water. You will have a dive-buddy and plenty of experts helping with each step as you progress toward certification. A video will introduce you to life beneath the surface. I will carefully talk you through each of the underwater skills in a surface class so there will be no question unanswered. Each day a Hal Watts Dive Instructor will teach an exciting dive related activity such as Search and Rescue, Equipment Maintenance, etc. Jerry Gillespie will take your order for lunch. Initially, I had hoped to provide a free lunch, but then I expanded the course by two days and cost projections put me "deep in the red." I hope you won't mind helping me cover the cost of food and drink.

There is soooooo much beyond "Scuba" that I couldn't just take you to the door and let you sneak a peek. AGAIN, ALL THE WET-WORK IS STRICTLY VOLUNTARY. For those desiring a deeper-longer experience during the next three days Melody, Dave, Hal Watts, the PSA Instructor Staff and I will escort you on "specialty" dives. Surface classes will cover what we don't have time or facilities to accomplish underwater. We will have a special dinner Saturday after training and award all of you your Spike-Diver Badge, Diploma, Dive Card, Special Recognitions, etc. You will also have the opportunity to meet some really great Spikers from around the country.

Our Dive Site is 90 miles North of Orlando, 40 miles South of Gainesville and 15 miles Northwest of Ocala. Within 12 Miles of the Dive Site there are many motels along I-75 and Highway 27 (Blichton Road). Oaktree Campground is also at this intersection. FORTY FATHOMS GROTTO IS LOCATED AT 9487 Northwest 115th Ave., OCALA, FLORIDA, Telephone (352) 368-7974. Use Interstate 75. Just North of Ocala, turn off on Exit 71 and go West on State Road (SR) 326 (two lane). Enroute you will cross beneath flashing yellow lights with an Ace Hardware on the right – continue on. You will cross under a second set of lights, almost exactly 7-miles from the point you exited I-75. At this second set of yellow lights, on the right you will see a metal Dive Flag (Red with White diagonal stripe) at the base of power pole on the corner. The "Scuba-sign" has a life-size red Scuba tank on the top. YOU ARE AT THE CORNER OF 115th AVENUE -- TURN RIGHT! Proceed beneath overhanging trees for something less than a mile. NOW, on the right, you see a white mail box with a small metal Dive Flag attached beneath. TURN RIGHT into the driveway, past a metal gate. On your left is a pole with a cloth Dive Flag flying at the top. At the pole base is a wooden announcement: "40 FATHOM GROTTO." Proceed down the drive less than a block to the Registration area. YOU HAVE ARRIVED!

HERE IS MY PROMISE: Spike Scuba will provide an unexpected gift – spiritual transformation! By becoming a diver, you will acquire a certain wisdom, a different way of thinking, judging and making decisions. Becoming knowledgeable and comfortable with the greater part of Earth, you can't help but become a better person! The state is replacing the bridge across the Clearwater River at Kamiah. A pin fell out of the below water structure. Everyone was looking for a qualified diver (like you). The rate was $125 per hour – interested?

YOU MUST CALL VICCI TODAY! 208-935-1325 TO ATTEND. SHE WILL IMMEDIATELY SEND YOU A SPIKE SCUBA MANUAL. STUDY EVERY PAGE BEFORE ARRIVING AT THE DIVE SITE.

WARRIORS OF THE APOCALYPSE

Francis Ford Copola sent me a letter in 1976 asking permission to use a photograph out of General William Westmoreland's book, A SOLDIER REPORTS. The picture, taken in 1968, shows me and a female nurse Toi with a selection of Cambodian mercenaries. He wanted to superimpose Marlin Brando's face over mine in advertising the first Hollyweird movie about Vietnam, "APOCALYPSE NOW." I had actually recruited, trained, equipped, and commanded a private army of Cambodians. The movie was a pathetic representation of the truth, even as Brando, as good an actor as he might be, was a miserable excuse for a Special Forces combat officer.

Last month in San Francisco International Airport

while awaiting an airline connection, I browsed a book store. A February 1997 hard-cover release entitled TWILIGHT WARRIORS, sub-titled "Inside the World's Special Forces," caught my eye. I was surprised to find numerous references to operations I had conducted. One of the chapters was called "Warriors of the Apocalypse." It seems my name and activities are destined to be linked to this word, "Apocalypse." Many people associate the name with violence, destruction, death, suffering, and the end times. While the word means "catastrophe, Armageddon, and holocaust," it also means "prophecy, revelation, and vision." As Solomon asked for wisdom, I have prayed to God for futuristic sight that I might advise and provide for any who will listen. Please ponder the words of this warning. Test them and determine for yourself that they are true. Take action to prepare your family and friends for what will surely occur in the near term.

"Illiterate – Write Now for Free Help," was what the sign read, but how do the impaired know? America, along with the world is in a transitional period involving struggle and challenge. A recent poll of teachers and students found that students today are FAR LESS interested in firm religious beliefs than teachers born between the years 1946 and 1976. Young people care MUCH LESS about academics and instead value an "active social life" as the most important part of their existence. Where is world headed? What is in store for us? Should we fight, if so, how, who, when, where, and why?

No question, there were appropriate times for Americans to take up arms against government – it happened this month in 1775 at Lexington and Concord, and again in the name of states rights in 1861. Some Americans believe we should attack Washington, D.C. A woman approached me in the Celestial Room of the Los Angeles Mormon Temple as I sat in prayer to God. In a hushed voice, she asked: "When do we attack Washington, D.C.?" A man at the March, San Diego Preparedness Expo told me that Bill Clinton would have to die before our nation could get well. He said that right-wing religious leaders stand ready to explain the moral justification and guide our country back to God and righteousness. Am I so confused and wrong to believe that the only two things worse than bad government are Anarchy and Tyranny?

Families in Bedford, NY (20 miles north of New York City) are suing the school system for endorsing and promoting occultism, pagan religions and New Age spirituality by having students engage in a Satanic game called "Magic: The Gathering." The Dungeons & Dragons-like game, played with trading cards, involves the supernatural. Some of the cards show lurid depictions of demons and one shows a woman about to be sacrificed. Mary Ann DiBari has 11 and 13 year old grand-daughters in public school. She calls it: "Straight from Satan. Human sacrifice, devil worship, spells." School officials see the lawsuit as a threat to schools everywhere: "We can't take apart the science or English curriculum because something seems to go against some part of a particular small group's belief system," said Rev. Paul Alcorn, a Bedford Presbyterian minister. Do you want your children playing occult games as part of their school studies? Jordi Weinstock, a Bedford senior at Fox Lane High School, said he was happy with the game: "They teach you more and more a multi-cultural view of the world."

The Amish have long ago "Come out from them" in accordance with II Corinthians 6:17. In the last 30 years the number of American farms has been on a steady decline, BUT IN THE PAST FIVE YEARS, 386 NEW AMISH SETTLEMENTS HAVE TAKEN ROOT IN 14 STATES! What do you suppose the Amish know that 265-million other Americans don't? The Amish run their own schools. They pay local taxes, but no Social Security, because they do not draw benefits from the government.

The Amish and I know what is coming. I choose not to fight the Government of the United States, or any other entity. I have carefully researched the safest place in America from every conceivable aspect and determined that place to be "Almost Heaven," Idaho. I have moved here as a final home in this life. I welcome my children, friends, and extended family of Americans. I am certain it will prove to be an ark in a "Time of Noah." I will defend my loved ones and neighbors, our homes, and peaceful way of life, against any who would resort to violence attempting to make us submit to ways and beliefs contrary to our God-given rights as free Americans. I do not feel my position is wrong. It is my decision to defend the rights of any and all residents of Almost Heaven to worship as they will, speak openly, and assemble peacefully. I will do all within my ability to ensure that my neighbors continue to live in liberty, peace, and their pursuit of happiness.

Government continues to grow more powerful and demanding. Americans who once were sovereign no longer own their homes. Sovereign states no longer control the resources within their borders. Bureaucrats and politicians lie with regularity and impunity. Clinton is a liar when he says that the America's budget will be balanced and our bills paid. I have explained and illustrated in almost every newsletter with evidence to the contrary. The truth is that every day, every American sinks deeper into debt. We are every one decreed by government to become slaves to a system run amok. I DEFY ANYONE TO REALISTICALLY DEMONSTRATE HOW THE DEBT OF THE USA WILL EVER BE A PENNY LESS THAN IT IS AT THIS MOMENT! How will the bills be paid? Won't the people be further taxed? When Washington, D.C. passes socialist programs, e.g., welfare, on to the states lessening federal fiscal liabilities does it mean that working people are taxed less, or more? When a Republic, such as California, passes a law saying no more handouts to illegal aliens, and a Federal Judge overturns the law, are people supposed to roll over and continue to be fleeced?

Hillary's National Health Card/Plan was sacked, but for how long? The Senate hasn't ratified the UN treaty on Rights of the Child, but how long until it happens? This is the age of electronics. American auto makers and rental agencies have installed computer chips to locate and even disable individual vehicles; local governments are making it mandatory for pets to be injected with a readable transponder, our military currently carries a MARC-card; states are beginning to issue driver licenses that double as debit cards and store other record data. We have a central global governing body, the UN, and World Trade Organization. Universal Product Codes containing the number 6-6-6 control almost every purchase. A chip has already been developed and patented for marking people. What makes you even hesitate to accept the fact that you too will be required to take a mark? Congress finally passed a "National ID" as part of last year's Appropriations Bill. The ID becomes mandatory in the year 2,000.

What will you do when it becomes a federal, or universal mandate to be marked in the right hand or in the forehead? Will you line up? What percentage of Americans do you suppose will willingly accept such a mark? How many Christians are prepared to JUST SAY NO? I personally believe the great majority of people view such a mark as a wonderful device to eliminate crime and make them safer in their person and property. Little Jon-Benet Ramsey's killer would have been immediately apprehended. Like the FAA can identify a aircraft, trace its track, and pin-point its location through individual transponder signals, an individual person's location could also be fixed. If such a device is so marvelous, no one could cheat on income tax because all transactions of income would be government monitored, computed, and controlled. Why did Saint John in his Revelation see it as an indelible self-destructive sin? Read Terry Cook's book, "The Mark of the New World Order" (order through Second Coming Ministries, 61535 S. Highway 97, Unit 9, Ste 288, Bend, OR 97702; phone: 541-593-9916).

How, in such a world of electronic codes, will you work, draw Social Security, receive health care, go to school, pay rent and taxes, or even buy groceries and gas? What will YOU do? What about your family members? Do you think Americans should have the right to reject and live outside such a system? Do you see why we have established the Almost Heaven communities? Certainly, you have every right to disagree with my conclusions that the Messiah may soon come and the UN, WTO, UPC, cashless society, and other indicators are signs of end times. Still, isn't it safer and better for your family to have a place where according to the government's own studies that is away from natural disasters, social upheaval, military targeting, and dangerous facilities? How about a home where the water is clean, wildlife abundant, weather mild, soil fertile, taxes low, and government small?

Our Idaho Congressional Representative is Helen Chenoweth. She was targeted by the Democrats in the 1996 election, but handily won re-election. The Sheriff of Idaho County, R. E. Meinen, and presiding Judge have proven themselves to been especially sensitive to the interests of residents over outside government agencies. Idaho County is one of the largest in America extending across Idaho from Montana to Oregon, yet the tax base is one of the smallest. Insurance cost is exceedingly low, supported by insignificant crime, minimal accident actuaries, and negligible incident of destructive weather. We offer the security of a community for far less than local Realtors sell raw land. If you find this proposition too good to be true, consider that I'm holding out for a much greater reward from a much higher source. I truly want to see you and your family safe.

Some pundits counter that Almost Heaven will become a target ALA Ruby Ridge, Waco, and the Montana Freeman. Weaver refused to appear in court, there was evidence that the Branch Davidians were stockpiling grenades and other illegal munitions, and the Freeman had threatened officials and written bad checks. Almost Heaven is not a "Hole in the Wall" for outlaws. We are not in one cabin, a single compound, or even lone community. We have five separate, but inter-supportive locales designed to serve 50 families each. There is no reason for government to confront any resident. There are no walls, guard towers, roadblocks, uniforms, sentries, machine gun nests, arsenals, or mine fields. Our protection is the law and our covenant to guard against any dangerous act by any entity within the area of Almost Heaven properties.

People on the edge claim that the "government" will come for us. I don't agree. I can imagine a time when any person who will not take a "mark" may be branded a radical. Targeting for violent confrontation as a community-complex for nothing more than living self-reliantly – off the grid, is too extreme for even the new world order. One-sixth of the population of America lives in the Los Angeles valley. The compliance managers will first have to deal with the teeming masses in every metroplex from LA-San Diego, east to Vegas, down to Phoenix, on the way to Dallas-Fort Worth, Houston, the Gulf cities, zapping Atlanta, Miami, up the Eastern Seaboard, Baltimore to Washington, Newark to New York, through New England to Boston with a turn back west to Philly, Detroit, Minneapolis-St. Paul, Chicago, across the Great Plains to Denver, over the Rockies to Seattle-Tacoma, Portland, and down to San Francisco-San Jose. Once the major cities are under control, state capitals will be brought into the fold, before the smaller towns. Why would a "global power" want to waste resources focusing on a tiny pocket of determined patriots in remote north-central Idaho?

Crazy Horse stated after the Little Big Horn massacre, and before he died, that if Custer had not been killed, he would have attacked their homes and families. The last letter from Crazy Horse said all the Montana-Black Hills Sioux wanted was to be left alone to live their ways. Later Chief Joseph surrendered the Idaho Nez Perce after fighting a running thousand mile battle with government troops. Extremists claim that, like the Indians, we will be hunted down and destroyed. It is impossible for me to accept a complete transformation of 265,562,845 people who, unlike any other in the world, will unify in compassion over a dog rescued from a deep well; a duck shot through with an arrow, safely captured and treated; or a cat rescued from a high tension power line, suddenly condone the wholesale slaughter of 250 peaceful American families. Americans were so outraged over a photo of a naked Vietnamese girl whose clothes had been burned away by napalm, they caused jellied gasoline to be banned as a weapon of war. Yes the families of Almost Heaven could get sprayed from the air with deadly viral diseases or chemicals, but so can other pockets of population. Such extreme measures must be left in the Hands of God to deal with.

The Essenes, considered extremists by the Jews and Romans, sought refuge within the mountain fortress of Masada. They took the kings Camp David-like retreat by force. As the Roman Legions destroyed Jerusalem (leaving not one stone upon another) and the Temple, they continued on to the Essenes stronghold. The X and XII Legions were among the most efficient and disciplined fighting forces on earth. It was only a matter of time until the enormous walls were breached and the conquerors found the people had taken their own lives. We have not taken government property by storm. We will not commit suicide. We occupy homes and land purchased free and clear and developed as legal homesteads. Yes, I understand that government rules can change, and I know how violent they can become (I was part of it – remember). I am convinced, however, that Almost Heaven is a refuge that will be spared when others aren't. I don't know of a better alternative considering the signs and challenges of the times.

I personally extend my hand and invitation to each of you to join us. There is no restriction on race, creed, or other discriminators. If you are an American, we are family. Unlike Jonestown, we don't serve koolade; unlike Mount Carmel, there is no one church or religious leader. We are not a cult, we are not a militia or paramilitary group. There are no walls, no guard towers, no men in camouflage lurking in the woods. We don't burn crosses; your children aren't in danger of automatic weapons fire. I, nor any other person is your leader, or commander. I am your brother. I do not fear the government that I have long served. I have successfully intervened at Ruby Ridge and Jordan, Montana through tough negotiation with the best the government has to offer. My personal commitment to you is that no violence will come to you. No one, no entity, will threaten you without proper due process of law. Others may talk, but how many have actually proven their capabilities and willingness to challenge authority to safeguard other Americans? I have and I will!

We currently have a full-service RV lot that will be given to a deserving family. Look for details on the newsletter order form. Only a small number of entries will be accepted before a selection will be made.

The best way to own a homestead is to call and make an appointment with Vicci Gritz 208-935-1325 or Dustin Gillespie 935-2918 to show you the lots available.

We have just opened up our airstrip, Flying Elk, and the last community, Almost Heaven Too. Once these lots are sold, there will be no more. Our prices are far-far less than others selling adjacent land, and greatly reduced from neighbors seeking to share their land. Plan to visit Idaho and allow us to show you why you should join us. Pay me a personal visit while you're looking around. I'll show you my new office and a view unequalled.

LAND OF THE FREE, OR HOME OF THE COMPLIANT

A man's home is his castle. Kings own castles. Kings are sovereign. The Lords sought a guarantee from King John through the Magna Carta (Latin for Great Charter) in June 1215 that their property could not be arbitrarily seized. King John had turned the courts into a vehicle for his personal whim (sounds like Bush and Clinton). He imposed new and raised old taxes. Most of the 63 clauses of the Magna Carta guaranteed feudal law for the nobles – the peasants and little people had no rights. This month, in the year 1775, British troops marched on Lexington and Concord to disarm American militiamen (Stalin carped in 1933 that America needed to disarm its militia). Our founding fathers were as kings, their states as nations. They fought and won our independence from King George III. As a result every American freeman became as a noble and could actually own his own home. It is the great American dream to work hard, buy property and build a home for your family to be passed on through the generations –just like the castles of Europe. Congress sought to make the dream a right for every American. The BLM was formed to disperse government land gained through war, treaty, and purchase. The idea behind the Magna Carta and our own Independence was to assure a home from government seizure through land in "allodium."

How many Americans "own" the dirt their home is built upon, or have their house paid off? Almost everyone pays a mortgage. So few qualify as property owners that the term "allodial" and "land patent" has gradually been eliminated from real estate manuals. Howard Hughes owned in allodium the land containing SUMMA (Hughes Helicopters). When California tried to build a highway across the land, based on the right of immanent domain, they were stopped and had to go around. Howard owned a land patent – the ground belonged to him and his assignees forever. Upon taking office as Secretary of the Interior, Bruce Babbitt, was challenged by a consortium of mining companies to issue land patents on their properties. If Howard and the miners can gain an allodial title, so can you.

The politically correct will ask: "Why should we want a land patent? What's wrong with having property in fee-simple? The answer becomes painfully obvious when a principal provider dies and survivors are unable to pay increasing taxes, forcing the family to dispose of the property. Children are denied farms, ranches, and family homesites. Allodial title secures the family legacy through the generations. If it is the right of every American to "own" their home, why would anyone want to settle for less?

Some time ago, I promised to find and identify for you the best way to NOW (today) own your property in allodium. A Wyoming man, Mike Stone, offers a $100 "how-to" packet. Mike has twice been a guest on Freedom Call. Greg Heun, one of our Almost Heaven neighbors, asked me to order one of the guides for use throughout the community. Greg ordered the "original" land patent from the BLM by identifying the lawful description of his own property. It cost him $1.10 for the copy, and 25-cents for it to be certified! When it arrived Greg saw that President Teddy Roosevelt had first conveyed the land as a 160-acre parcel to Andrew Christensen on 16 February 1906. Greg is currently accomplishing the final administrative details required to properly register his homestead and bring the original land patent up to date.

Many county recorders have been ordered not to accept such documents. Idaho County still recognizes citizen rights and official duties. Greg says one of the first steps is to insure your land deed is in your proper name. You then file a Declaration of Land Patent with the county recorder. A Final step involves removing the property from the tax rolls. We plan to have Mike come to Kamiah to give us a community briefing. We will keep you informed as Greg Heun continues the process as evidence that a normal American can still own his home – free and clear.

THE COVEN

Ted Gunderson served with the FBI for 27 years. He was Agent-in-Charge of the Los Angeles Field Office. He investigated the ritualistic abuse of children at a day-care center near Redondo Beach. He became a target of Satan worshipers when he helped his friend, John DeCamp. John is today a Lincoln, Nebraska lawyer, and former State Senator who wrote THE FRANKLIN COVER-UP. The book is about an Omaha savings and loan that laundered CIA money, provided young children to U.S. Government officials in the highest positions of special trust and confidence, and performed Satanic rituals under the guidance of its CEO, Larry King. King sang the National Anthem twice at the Republican Presidential Convention for Ronald Reagan. Later it was revealed in the news that he was accorded Midnight visiting privileges at the White House where he conducted unique tours for groups of homosexuals. Another book, THE TRANCE FORMATION OF AMERICA, tells a Stephen King-type horror story about CIA sex slaves. The above may appear too bizarre to be believed, but every word is true. You must know the true extent of what is going on if you and your loved ones are to be protected. WHAT YOU DON'T KNOW CAN AND WILL HURT YOU!

I doubted the "trance formation" story. It was just to wild to be true. Young boys and girls under control of the CIA were forced to serve the evil appetites of high level officials. I wouldn't accept Ronald Reagan, George Bush and other luminaries as pedophiles. There was however, a slight blush of truth. Without knowing it, the woman who wrote the book, Cathy O'Brien, mentioned a code word – "TINKERBELL." She had no way of knowing about Operation PEDRO PAN wherein the CIA used a Holy Roman Catholic priest in Cuba to introduce 16,000 young Cuban boys and girls without parents into the U.S.! What happened to all those youngsters? In the case of DeCamp, a young girl ended up becoming the longest held Nebraska female in solitary because she wouldn't recant her claim of being used as a sex-slave to those in high office.

Gunderson, DeCamp and I attended the University of Nebraska. Ted told me the details of a little boy (Bare) in the third grade who drew school pictures that shocked his teacher. While his schoolmates portrayed swimming, picnics, plane and train travel, this little lad sketched a table containing a knife, bottle of "blood" and the head of a "kiddie." Authorities were notified. Additional drawings revealed babies being thrown into a fire by a ring of adults and other terrible depictions. It was unreal to me – another world. Ted told of a county in Oregon where the police, prosecutor, and judge were all part of a Satanic group. Anyone challenging or resisting their domination was summarily dealt with in the courts. I secured a classified file concerning cattle mutilation in Arkansas and Texas. It was more of the same – people in high positions abusing authority while protecting the inhuman machinations of Satanic associates. Still unreal – then Linda Wiegand called. The small child scribbblings were the same: devil heads, blood, animal sacrifice, adults raping and menacing helpless children.

At 57, I was naive. I honestly thought the solution was simplistic. Enough public awareness applied as pressure on key officials would result in proper investigations and reversal of an unreal situation. I believe in the Devil and evil, but I never imagined the power of an enraged covenant. Articles in past newsletters detail how people in high positions are able to exist despite an overt abundance of skin, bones, blood, and body parts. Look at Sedona, Arizona, for example: a female visitor over Halloween turns up missing. Friends and family initiate a search that turns up remains of three dismembered women! Sedona is a special Satanic zone, surpassing witchy Salem, Mass. as a "vortex" of power for New Age practitioners. Is it possible that an entire State could come under the controlling influence of un-Godly forces? How can a pedophile find security through a broad base of law enforcement, court authorities, bureaucrats, and politicians? Should there be a warning, e.g. "Danger Rough Road," in such areas of unrighteousness?

Consider that Tom Wilkinson was accused and arrested for sexual assault of Jon and Ben Wiegand in Vermont. He goes to Connecticut and with the help of "Male Advocate" Louis Kiefer he is awarded custody of both boys. While the Mom, Linda Wiegand and her sons are underground, Wilkinson obtains a divorce and successive monetary awards from the same court, while Linda is denied any representation. When Linda was arrested, the boys were given to the abuser, while Kiefer has Linda put into a maximum security prison on civil charges by his friendly judge. Anyone who would intervene also falls victim to police power and negative media. The power of evil goes beyond those in direct servitude. Attorneys are damned with diversions, memory loss, confusion, and other attenuating factors. Is there any way for virtue to overcome depravity?

Jim and I were scheduled to appear for four days of pretrial motions and preliminary hearings 14-19 March. A young Oklahoma attorney, Robert Jones, volunteered to review our case if I would arrange to join him in Connecticut the week before. We met Friday morning, 7 March and drove to the school where Jim and I were arrested, past the house where the 1955 Chevy was parked. We went to the Enfield Court House and asked the clerk to look at our files – and discovered that all motions had to be filed by that date. I telephoned both Spinella in Hartford and Collulouri in New York. Neither lawyer had filed a single motion despite my repeated faxes for them to do so. They seemed surprised they had missed the deadline. There is a statute of limitations on filing an action for false arrest. The police had conducted an unwarranted search, and we had long requested access to audio recordings of police communications leading up to our arrest on 30 September. Robert and I prepared the three motions and I filed the "pro se" at 4:53 P.M. It was as if our own attorneys were working against us.

On the 12th I drove to Boston's Logan Airport to meet Jim's Northwest flight at 5:00 P.M. I called Vicci to see if there were any messages. She informed me that Collulouri had just called to inform us that the court date was postponed! This was the second time we had bought tickets well in advance to get the cheapest fares on non-refundable, non-changeable tickets. We weren't due out until the 20th! John Malone, the prosecutor, had Naval Reserve duty (for the second time), but neglected to inform us until just before we were to be in court. We weren't the only ones hurt by this gross disregard. A family was allowed to fly in from Ireland for a postponed trial date during the same time frame. How many times, at what expense of time, money, stress, and loss of other resources, is the government permitted to jerk defendants around like a yo-yo?

Sometimes I feel dread...like Vietnam...so far from home, against terrible odds, controlled like pawns, unable to win, unable to leave...like a nightmare. I need you, don't abandon me. Together, we can win, I know we can, together we can save Jon, Ben, Linda, and maybe more. We lost Vietnam. We can't lose this cause. Jon, Ben, and how many more need a voice. Despite the power of evil on this earth, I know that God's Angels are sufficient for all. Jim and I will win. Our motions to dismiss are heavy in current positive law. If the judge refuses to rule in our favor, we will win at trial, or if needs be in appeal. Our suit for false arrest is also well grounded. I must pay the attorneys a start-up fee of $5,000, but follow-on costs are on contingency. We should win handily in Federal Court. Everyone who has testified to the boys abuse at the hands of Wilkinsons has been intimidated. Doctor Gordon Ahlers, the pediatrician who examined Jon and Ben and found them suffering from deep penetration, bruising, and swelling was almost run down in March and the Hartford social worker was threatened. We need a few angels on our side working against this coven.

BREAKING POINT

Judge George Levine, Louis Kiefer, and Tom Wilkinson have extorted Linda Wiegand to the point where she has agreed to surrender all disability payments ($600 per month) for the past year and for the next four years if they will release her from prison. Linda is disabled and draws insurance from Social Security, CIGNA, and Northwestern Mutual. Can you believe that such a despicable act is possible in America – in 1997!!!? How can a judge extort money from a mom by holding her in prison until she agrees to give up her only means of income? Will you join me in praying that they burn on earth as I'm sure they will in hell? It is illegal to attach disability! How is Wiegand supposed to buy food, clothing, shelter? I curse this trio of demons.

Linda was prepared to sign over to the judge all rights to disability as she appeared Tuesday, 18 March before George Levine. The Judge wasn't convinced. Levine demanded from the insurance carrier: "Show me the money!" He has ordered Linda back into maximum security until the disability is delivered to him and she has a physical exam to show a continued need for disability. The Connecticut appellate court refused to review Diane Polan's motion. The next step is a motion to the Supreme Court and a Federal action. It is impossible to imagine that 300 violent felons including murderers, rapists, arsonists, and robbers were released in Florida because of overcrowding, and a woman who would protect her children from sexual abuse would be kept in prison. Florida will release another 2,600 hardened criminals in the near term, while Linda continues to be locked up. Robert Jones believes Linda is being pressured to testify against Jim and me. Robert thinks the whole focus is on destroying me as a national patriot figure.

Wilkinson was required to appear before a Rockville Family Court judge to answer State charges concerning the abuse of Jon and Ben. His first hearing was diluted by Kiefer's failed motions to put the action back under his "friendly" judge. The second round on 17 March resulted in Kiefer gaining a continuance until 31 March. Tom Wilkinson's sister, Karen Nutter Wilkinson, is applying for custody. The boys have stated that she was party to their abuse. Furthermore Carol Morressey's motion for maternal grandmother visitation rights was also delayed. On the upside, Vermont Federal District Judge William Sessions has ruled that the video deposition of Jon and Ben can be released. The August 1996 video was a Kiefer ploy to show Vermont authorities there was never any sexual abuse by Tom Wilkinson. It backfired when Jon steadfastly maintained Wilkinson had raped him. Kiefer immediately filed a federal action to keep the Vermont Attorney General from sharing the video with Connecticut authorities. Kiefer said it would taint his defamation suit against me. Kiefer has filed suit against the Vermont authorities and threatened in court on 17 March to sue Connecticut social workers who refuse to cooperate with him.

Linda's last letter is a desperate plea for us to bail her out. Judge George Levine placed a $30,000 cash bond on her freedom. The problem is his caveat that the bond, if paid, be forfeited to Kiefer and Wilkinson. No one wants to give $30,000 to the likes of a child abuser and rabid officer of the court. As a result Linda languishes in prison. Linda likens her incarceration to forceful abduction for ransom: "If I were kidnapped and held on $30,000 ransom, and my life were at stake, I think (God, I hope) people would be motivated to pay it to save my life." Linda promises to pay back anyone or group of people who will buy her freedom. Is there someone who can come up with $30,000? Please contact me at 208-935-1325. Linda must be freed, if not through law, then by generosity for the sake of justice. An attorney awaits Linda's release with a federal action to return Jon and Ben to their mother. I will speak on Friday and Saturday April 11-12 at the Dallas Expo. I'll put on my uniform and beg for whatever people will give toward Linda's liberty.

Please help as you can. We can use airline tickets, frequent flyer miles, and donations to pay for motel, car rental, and legal fees. We will win -- what is the alternative? Please write to Linda, but don't include any printed church or Bible materials. Also, you must put your full return address on the envelope, and don't send any self-address stamped envelopes. Any violation means your letter comes back, or is thrown in the trash. Linda's address is: LINDA WIEGAND #251878, YORK MAXIMUM CORRECTIONAL FACILITY, 201 WEST MAIN STREET, NIAHTIC, CT. 06357. You may register OUTRAGE by calling and faxing: Judge George Levine --860-548-2850/2760 fax, Governor John G. Roland -- 860-566-4840/524-7396 fax, Attorney General Richard Blumenthal -- 860-566-3579/1704 fax. Make your message short and to the point: RELEASE LINDA WIEGAND -- JAIL WILKINSON, KIEFER and Levine; SAVE JON AND BEN WIEGAND NOW! May Almighty God Bless each one of you who will help in this Righteous cause.

There are two other defense fund raisers on going. A group in California is selling tickets for $10 to give away a year's supply of food, a $5,000 UBO, a $50 gold coin, captured Communist SKS Rifle, and a dozen other quality prizes. You send them $100 and they give you 10 tickets. The drawing will be held 13 April. CALL 209-625-1356 FOR LAST MINUTE ENTRIES (The final few always seem to win). Claudia and I will "gift" our Nevada airport home and hanger to someone willing to donate $200 to our defense fund. There is no limit to the number of individual entries (You donate $1,000, we put your name in five times). The person to received the home will be selected as soon as 1,000 entries are received. The property is worth more than $225,000. All gifters will receive a receipt showing your number(s). The home, grounds, and special features are described in the March CFA Newsletter, or call Vicci at 208-935-1325. I borrowed another $2,500 and sent it to John Schoenhorn for Linda's defense. My immediate needs are to repay the borrowed money, plus pay $5,000 for the Civil Rights Violation suit against the Suffield Police. By the end of this month, Jim and I will owe another $5,000 to our criminal defense lawyers. Please help as you will. I'll send you a personal letter as a receipt that your donation was received and deposited. If you don't receive my letter, call 208-935-1325.

Linda's criminal trial for "Custodial Interference" is set for 26 April. Please join us that day in fasting and prayer for Linda's acquittal. She will have a six-person jury. Do what you will in the interest of justice.

FIGHT BACK

Concerning "Judge" George Levine: I am attaching a statement of complaint to be sent to the Connecticut Judicial Review Council at POB 260099, Hartford, CT 06126-0099. Their telephone and Fax are: 860-566-5424 and 6617. Please fill out the top lines with your personal information. Court of Judge... Superior Court, Judicial District of Hartford; Name of Court Case: Wilkinson vs. Linda Wiegand, docket # FA920517285; dates: 3 December -- current; Nature of Complaint: Civil Rights Violation. Linda Wiegand was not present and without representation in 1995 when Tom Wilkinson secured favors through the Hartford Family Court System using attorney Louis Kiefer; the absurdity of which is indicated by: (1) Wilkinson being charged in Vermont with Child Sexual Abuse of Wiegand's two minor sons, Jon and Ben. Fearing for her children Wiegand fled in 1993. (2) An assessment of $500,000 in favor of Wilkinson, plus $50,000 for Kiefer, $1600 per month alimony, and $1500 child support. Linda Wiegand is disabled with only Social Security and insurance to cover her basic needs. Without representation, Wiegand lost her home and all other property to Wilkinson. (3) Wiegand was arrested for Custodial Interference (trial scheduled for 26 April 97). JUDGE LEVINE incarcerated Wiegand in the York Maximum Security Facility on 3 December continuously until this date for not paying Wilkinson. Linda has appeared before Levine six times with the same results -- more imprisonment! (4) Connecticut has found Wiegand to be indigent and furnished her counsel. Levine would strip Wiegand of all disability to satisfy Kiefer and Wilkinson. Wilkinson is an employed engineer. Wilkinson is currently charged by Connecticut with abuse and is before the Rockville Family Court. (5) Levine has been asked to stand down because of his personal bias in this case, but refuses. (6) Levine will un-Constitutionally, criminally, and wrongfully reduce Wiegand to a pauper dependent upon public welfare. I am ashamed that the "Constitution State" would allow such wanton destruction of a human being.

Levine's supervisor is Judge Aaron Ment; address: 231 Capitol Avenue, Hartford, Conn. 06106; telephone: 860-566-4461; fax: 860-566-3308. Please write, phone and fax Judge Ment with the same information you include on the Judicial Complaint. I reported last month the imprisonment of three Superior Court Judges from San Diego for corruption. They too accepted bribes from a lawyer in return for biased judgments. I believe we can topple another cabal if enough of us will fill out the complaint, call and fax Levine's superiors. Together with positive unified action is the way we will win. We can do as a nation what we are doing at Almost Heaven.

TICKET INTO HEAVEN?

Another one of my dear friends and extended family members has been denied church advantages because of clergy who believe your ticket into Heaven is an income tax return. What kind of church leaders see their purpose as working for the IRS? I've previously published information on the dilemma of corporate churches as government agencies, but I'm always dismayed to learn of continued abuse. I pray that the righteous people under condemnation will be strong and know that God will be their judge – not the demigods who will someday be called to answer for their phariseism. There is constant reference to the separation between church and state when it comes to any religious recognition on public or government property. One Pennsylvania high school principal refused to allow students an activity booth encouraging young people to remain chaste, but had no objection to handing out free condoms! Why is the IRS allowed within our churches? I gave the answer in a past newsletter. Almost all churches today are "corporations." A corporation is an entity of the government. Every corporation must have an officer dedicated to the interests of the state.

It's April Fool's Day again and millions of Americans will protest bad government by not filing income taxes this year. IRS Commissioner Margaret Milner Richardson resigned in February amid heavy flak of IRS misconduct. Both Richardson and Senator Bob Kerry (R-NB) who chairs a Congressional Committee looking at the IRS, admit that the IRS is in trouble and losing ground as more and more Americans have had enough. Richardson and Kerry agree that the very essence of the IRS, "voluntary assessment and payment of income tax," is in danger of catastrophic failure. In truth the 16th Amendment taxes "income." The Supreme Court of the United States has ruled that "income" is defined as "corporate profit." There is no statute mandating working Americans pay an income tax. No property tax is paid, for example, until an "assessment" is made. Americans have been duped for generations into self-assessment and voluntary payment. There are legal ways to keep what you work for and disarm the IRS.

A major move in keeping what you earn is stopping employers from "withholding" your pay. Most businesses won't hire a worker unless a W-4 Form is filed. The W-4 asks if the applicant is "exempt?" The form used to ask: Are you a full time student? The inference was that only full time students were exempt. The IRS could just as well have asked, "Is your hair red?" When the "Exempt" box is indicated NO

MORE money can be deducted from your pay for income tax. YOU SHOULD SPECIFY: "NOT VOLUNTARILY TENDERED – FOR EMPLOYMENT ONLY" on the form. This prevents the document from being used as a weapon against you in any IRS attack. There is no law compelling a worker to file an income tax, but most people are intimidated into compliance. Attila the Hun and Genghis Khan are among those tyrants who successfully frightened and extorted governments and people to pay tribute. If you feel you must file or risk abuse by both church and state, consider a "zero" assessment.

This second step in fortifying against the IRS is to file a "zero income" 1040-Form. You are not required by law to pay income tax unless you voluntarily assess yourself an amount and swear under penalty of perjury that you owe money. This amount is then recorded on the IRS record of assessments and collections. You should sign the form with a caveat that it is "involuntarily submitted and signed under duress," to guard against the form being used against you. I won't advise you to do anything against the law. When the great Philadelphia lawyer, Senator Spector, asked me to explain to his Judiciary Committee, in 25-words or less, "What is it all about," (America's grievance against government) I said: "IT IS ABOUT THE LAW – EVERYONE BEING EQUAL UNDER THE LAW, WHETHER THEY ARE BADGE TOTING OFFICIALS OR JUST PLAIN PEOPLE." I agree that everyone should PAY ALL TAXES LAWFULLY DUE! But, do you feel obliged to work and pay more than what is required? Recall, the law (Bill of Rights, 5th Amendment) is very specific about the "due process" requirement for separation of an owner from property.

Several years ago a Utah family I know awoke to find their home surrounded by two-dozen gun-toting BATF. When challenged why they chose to traumatize the children with drawn firearms, body armor and helmets, the sole IRS agent explained: "We didn't know that you wouldn't have a basement full of guns." The family was ordered out of the home and their vehicles towed away. Later the IRS auctioned off the property. Jerry Gillespie and I protested in Provo along with a crowd of supporters. The family should have stood firm and refused to leave their home. THE IRS HAS NO DELEGATION OF AUTHORITY TO SEIZE PROPERTY – they bootleg BATF power under Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearm laws. The IRS SELLS ITS INTEREST IN PROPERTY and offers a "quit-claim" to the highest bidder. WILL ANYONE PAY ME FOR MY INTEREST IN THE GOLDEN GATE BRIDGE? HOW ABOUT THE BROOKLYN BRIDGE...THE LONDON BRIDGE...ANY BRIDGE? I'll gladly quit-claim my interest in these well known properties. TRY TO SECURE TITLE INSURANCE TO SEIZED IRS PROPERTY. What about levies and liens? IRS actions are "notices" not "certified." Remedy is through personal suit against the agent filing the false notice.

Many Americans are going into business for themselves as "independent contractors." More than 80% of the nation's fastest growing 428 companies currently "outsource" jobs. The companies are supposed to issue 1099s, but do not automatically "withhold" taxes. The IRS has audited 11,380 companies and reclassified 483,000 workers, collecting $751,000,000 in "back" taxes. The IRS says there are still 2.2 million people, costing the FED $2-billion per year, who should be labeled "employees" and have wages withheld by their parent companies. As "independent contractors" the individuals can deduct far more from what otherwise would end up in IRS collections. Companies that lose are charged taxes, fines, penalties, interest, etc. for three years back. Most audited employers are forced into bankruptcy. Some of the acid-tests used by the IRS in determining who is and isn't an employee include: EMPLOYEES take orders from the company; are paid by the hour, not the job. CONTRACTORS set their own hours and can hire someone else to do the work. Contractors assume risk. EMPLOYEES use company equipment and can be easily fired. CONTRACTORS provide their own equipment and can't be fired unless there is a breach of contract.

THE POTTER'S HAND DID SLIP

My favorite comedian, Bill Cosby, was admonishing his TV-son: "I brought you in this world, I can take you out -- I'll make another one just like you!" It made me laugh, Cosby usually does. That was years ago, but since I've used his line many times in reference to my own children when they were teenagers. Isn't it interesting how different children from the same family are? Are there two just alike? It is said EVERYONE has an identical twin. Could God give life to 5.8 billion people -- no duplicates, or carbon copies -- everyone of them individuals, everyone different? Today, science is striving to do what God does not -- clone life forms!

Like a Mel Brooks Hollyweird movie, only for real, Scottish scientist Ian Wilmut and his Edinburgh -- Roslin Institute colleagues flattened the world last month when they unveiled "Dolly." Substituting an egg nucleus with the DNA of a single cell from the mammary gland of an adult sheep, the scientists created Dolly, the first "open-to-the-public" recorded mammal ever cloned. Immediately following the presentment, an American team announced they had secretly succeeded in cloning a monkey. It only remains for the Russians to claim duplication of human beings! But how does it work? It was forever accepted by science that no such thing was possible! Now convince yourself that the CIA/CFR/NWO/etc. haven't been turning out carbons of Bush, and other elitist. Does this mean I've got to apologize to HATON/ATON, aka the "Lizard God?" Haton said that there were many clones of Bush. Barbara would go to the closet and pick out the "george" for that day by the tie she liked. When Bush did something stupid (frequently), it was the clone malfunctioning.

As I've described in past newsletters, each of us is our own universe. We are made up of some 15-trillion living cells. The nucleus of EACH/EVERY CELL contains genes (about 100,000) that form the various individual components (blood, bone, muscle, nerve, hair, skin, et al). The genes start out neutral, without a specific identity. As development progresses the genes take on an "IRREVERSIBLE" indelible role. While every cell has the genesis of all cells, only the identity gene is active -- ergo the problem. The nucleus of an adult mammary cell theoretically will only reproduce like cells -- instead of a sheep, Dolly would turn out to be no more than a tit! Imagine a coliseum containing 100,000 lights and only one is in use. What science has found in the production of Dolly is that when the main switch is turned off and then back on (taking the nucleus of an adult mammary cell and substituting it for the nucleus of an egg), ALL the lights come on, not just the one previously in use! Does this change the idea you can't make a silk purse out of a sow's ear; or if Bill Clinton was cloned the results would be anything more than a dork?

Our own Harold Varmus, director of the National Institutes of Health told Congress that "limited" cloning of human beings might lead to cures for cancer and other illnesses. "There is no limit to what you could do," said Varmus. Seems like I saw the movie back in the days of black & white, it was entitled: Abbott and Costello Meet Frankenstein. Iowa's Senator Tom Harkin says he is against any restrictions on cloning and welcomes whatever man might try to create. Do you suppose man's hand will be as steady as that of the Almighty? Thank God, you and I came along after the Tower of Babel and before Xeroxed humans. I can see it now: the Pentagon will get caught trying to duplicate 150 copies of Madonna. I'm sure Harkin will try and convince Hillary to clone up an Abe Lincoln as an up-grade for platinum-level Democratic National Committee contributors who qualify for a night in Abe's White House bedroom. What will cloning do to the blow-up anatomically-correct rubber-mate? The end has got to be near!

WORMWOOD -- A GREAT STAR FROM HEAVEN

The Bible's Book of Revelation, Chapter 8 talks of Seven Angels with seven trumpets as the Seventh Seal is opened. The first two Angels bring hail and fire -- a great burning mountain is cast into the sea. The first two Angels see one-third of the land and sea destroyed. The Third Angel causes a great star to fall from heaven burning as it were a lamp, which falls upon "one-third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters; And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter." The Fourth Angel warns of the last three. The Fifth Angel brings a falling star which opens the bottomless pit to locusts with the power of Scorpions to hurt those without the Seal of God in the foreheads for a period of five months. These locusts have a king named Apollyon (Greek) which means a "destroyer," or Satan. The Sixth Angel sees "two hundred thousand thousand" (200,000,000) soldiers come via the Euphrates River "to slay the third part of men" (Armageddon) Nostradamus says this will occur in July of 1999. Mayans history says the world will end in the year 2012.

I've written articles on the possibility of celestial objects striking earth. Hale-Bopp is thought to be the "brightest" comet to become visible in our sky during the last 4,000 years. The 25-mile wide object (four times larger than Halley or Hyakutake) looks like it is standing still, but in reality is hurtling through space at an estimated 70,000 mph! Scientists calculate it has 64 times the energy and mass of the object that blotted out the sky, caused the dinosaurs to become extinct, and accelerated the last Ice Age. Hale-Bopp is not supposed to come any closer than 122,000,000 miles to us, but comets are notoriously unpredictable. If Hale Bopp were to take a turn and collide with Earth all known life would cease. To illustrate ground-zero, imagine that Hale-Bopp hits Earth at the deepest part of the Pacific Ocean. As the front edge hits the ocean bottom, the back end will still be in the stratosphere (a great burning mountain)! BOOM!!! – and all the king's horses and all the king's men couldn't put our planet back together again.

The experts say that Hale-Bopp (named for the two guys, Alan Hale of Cloudcroft, NM, Thomas Bopp from Glendale, AZ, who first spotted our bright-lite visitor back in July 1995 when it was judged to be some 650 million miles away) has 100 times the energy output in the form of light than Halley and 30 times that of last year's Hyakutake. Hale-Bopp will be brightest on April Fools Day as it moves from northeast to northwest. Pecos Bill is said to have roped a shooting star to impress Sweet Sue. Hale-Bopp would be quite a prize. Authorities say the ice, dust, and gas mass is 4.5 billion years old and undoubtedly contains some of the first dirt ever. I don't know how they are able to determine such data from something so far away, but you know science. I don't know if Hale-Bopp is actually Wormwood, but if it isn't, don't despair. Science says there are a trillion more out beyond Pluto similar to this one. Yuji Hyakutake spotted last year's comet just two months before it screamed past Earth on 25 March 1996 at a range of just 9 million miles. Is it strange that Comet West (1976), Comet Halley (1986), Comet Hyakutake (1996) all appeared at the start of Spring (March)?

I've already mentioned that an Internet entry claimed Hale-Bopp is just the knocker of a much larger orb piloted by aliens following in the space wake. If that isn't enough to think about, recent additions say the comet is spewing out a cloud of poisonous gas that Earth will pass through. ORDER YOUR GAS MASK AND EXTRA FILTER NOW (That's what happened when Halley's Comet came around in 1910)! I know several college graduates well grounded in the Gospel who bought thick welding goggles because HATON (Lizard-God) published a warning about the "photon belt" that would blind-kill the unprotected. If you want to read, or add to the comet hysteria tune your computers to www.halebopp.com. It's easy to find facts to back almost any rumor when it comes to comets. The Greatest Roman of all, Julius Caesar, was assassinated as I write this section (15 March, 44 BC) by a conspiracy under the leadership of Markus Brutus. A comet appeared confirming to many Caesar's godship. Comets preceded both the plague of 1665 and great fire of London in 1666...all in March!

Is there any question that comets (falling stars) will impact Earth? Is there any question that heavenly missiles have already done so? Let's say Hale-Bopp takes a turn directly towards Earth – what can be done? John's Revelation was completed in the year 100 AD. John saw Babylon destroyed, 1,000 years of perfect government, followed by a new Heaven and new Earth. You do not have to believe the Bible, as I do, or in the things prophesied. My purpose is not to covert your spiritual inclinations, but simply report and comment on the current events that carries us onward. Not being able to see air doesn't keep us from breathing; our inability to see God shouldn't do away with faith. I am a believer in God. I derive hope from the recordings of His prophets. If I am wrong, so be it; if right, how much greater the joy knowing where we are in time through the knowledge of His signs. Hale-Bopp will fade from view late in May.

LEE HARVEY MCVEIGH

Timothy McVeigh is scheduled for trial this month. Both the Dallas Morning News and Playboy Magazine have released stories claiming McVeigh admitted setting off the 15 April 1995, Oklahoma City bomb purposely at 9:00 A.M. to get a "bodycount," 168 dead, 500 injured. McVeigh's attorney Stephen Jones of Enid, Oklahoma, unsuccessfully asked Judge Richard Matsch for the charges to be dropped, a year continuance, and movement of the trial from Colorado to Vermont. I have written several articles allowing you to look behind the scenes at who is really responsible for the worst American disaster in our lifetime. Here again is exactly what I am certain happened, including why and how.

Ruby Ridge, Waco, the Malibu-Donald Scott killing, and a legion of other police abuses gave rise to the unorganized militia, common law courts, sovereignty programs, IRS protester and other "patriot" movements. Bill Clinton was lower in the polls than any president in history (25%). Something drastic had to happen to instantly reverse the trend. Tim McVeigh scored too high on his Special Forces Aptitude Test and was retained as an extreme action Oswald-type diversion. The president's unofficial advisory council concluded only a drastic solution would solve the dilemma. National Security Advisor Anthony Lake (failed CIA Director) OK'ed the appraisal and sought a computerized scenario from STAG. Once the target was decided the mission was assigned by DDCI-Ops to the Clandestine Special Operations Directorate for selection of the appropriate operative. Ed Wilson's Libyan team provided the principal agent who I believe was a former Special Forces Sergeant Major. This man re-energized his Islamic terrorist contacts who would execute the bombing. A control agent would handle the contract contact, who in turn supervised the explosives team.

Every extreme domestic operation has a diversionary plan. The tactical team and the diversion work in lock-step, but compartmentalized, with no knowledge of each other. Normally the diversion leader is convinced that the action is not designed to hurt any Americans – only to scare the public and authorities into a predicted course of action. Loyalty oaths, promises, threats and other means of extortion (McVeigh's mother in a Florida asylum) are applied to insure the ruse doesn't betray the C-cube agents. I believe McVeigh was encouraged to recruit his own team (Terry Nichols and Mike Fortier). McVeigh was probably the only one of his group who had any contact with a control agent. Ruse personnel conducted visible reconnaissance and other operations that would later allow witness identification.

McVeigh and Fortier surveyed each floor of the building. Nichols, McVeigh, and a young dark complexion heavy-set man calling himself Robert Jacques, as identified by real estate salesman William Maloney, went to Cassville, Missouri in the Fall of 1994 looking for a hideout. A Kansas cafe waitress, Barbara Wittesburg, said she saw the same three men in a rented Ryder van. When she asked them where they were headed, they replied: "We're going to Oklahoma City."

A clandestine team rigged explosives to the front building supports. These charges were detonated seconds before the truck bomb went off. One survivor interviewed on television said he felt a rumble and took cover beneath a desk which saved his life. The blast wave (18,000 fps) from the truck was must faster than the speed of sound (1,160 fps) There would have been no "rumble" before the windows were blown in. The rumble came from internal supports giving way just before the Ammonium-Nitrate blew in the building front. The supports were fired electrically by remote control based on the exact detonation time of the truck bomb.

McVeigh was given a predetermined route of withdrawal using a prepared car, coordinated with the Oklahoma Highway Patrol officer who arrested McVeigh. Two "drifters" arrested by the FBI at a motel just across the Oklahoma-Missouri line were cleared and released. The older man was identified himself as "ROBERT JACQUES!" Two "bums" were arrested in connection with the JFK assassination, but released. I know both of them! They are identified in my book, CALLED TO SERVE. These two "older men" were the C-cube (Command, Control, & Communications) of the shooter team. Is it a wonder that DCI Allen Dulles's OSS partner, Ed Wilson, is party to the killing of the president in Dallas, part of the Watergate break-in, and at the center of the CIA-Libyan terrorist training?

Bill Clinton confirmed the Machiavellian sanction when on world television, while accepting re-election he stated: "The Oklahoma City bombing is what turned everything around for us." The government and media has bet the pot on indicting all conservatives as John Doe-2 and convicting McVeigh as a patriot terrorist. McVeigh admits he had a role in the events leading up to the Murrah Building act of terrorism. McVeigh, however, flunked a polygraph test concerning whether or not all of his co-conspirators are known to investigators. Justice sifts through in strange ways. Anthony Lake withdrew his name as Director, Central Intelligence on 17 March. Like Richard Armatage (Golden Triangle bagman) before him, Lake couldn't allow Congress to dig too deep. The current "acting" Director, George Tenet will be confirmed. He used to be a "Congressional staff director" before going to work for Lake at the NSC. Tenet is a perfect example of the "swinging door" game played in D.C. He will make an excellent pawn for the NWO.

DE SHADOW DO

Who knows what evil lurks in the heart of men? Where is the Shadow when we need him? TWA-800 exploded over the water shortly after take-off from New York City's JFK Airport back in July killing all 230 aboard. The cause is still undetermined. The FBI disconnected its telephone number for public generated clues and leads, and is hard at work suppressing reports from credible witnesses that a missile brought the air-giant down. Captain Chris Baur, an Air National Guard helicopter pilot, reports seeing a ground-to-air missile signature. Chris works as a airplane driver for U.S. Customs as a civilian. Since the disaster his airborne eye-witness report has been withheld. A C-130 pilot also said he saw a missile home in on the jet. A former United Airline pilot, Richard Russell, is in hot water over an FAA radar tape that shows a missile strike. The Feds are investigating his access rather than what's on the video.

Finally former White House Press Secretary Pierre Salinger is back with renewed allegations that a runaway U.S. Navy missile was responsible for the explosion. Salinger pinpoints a live-fire naval operation and USN missile ship operating in close proximity to the TWA flightpath. He says the Navy projectile lost its lock on an intended aerial test vehicle and instead homed in on the airliner. Salinger even says the flying bomb was armed with a warhead outlawed by both the UN and NATO.

Seeking to draw attention away from the "missile" theory, the National Transportation Safety Board now says the behemoth might have been downed by falling space junk, or even an asteroid fragment. The plane was 10 miles offshore and 13,000 feet high when it exploded. While 25 commercial aircraft have been downed by "Stinger-type" shoulder fired ground-to-air missiles in the past 20 years, it isn't likely that TWA-800 fell in that way. The range and altitude involved are close to being outside the capability of both U.S. and foreign man-portable AAA weapons.

If a missile was responsible, it is much more likely that it came from a naval ship, as Salinger has said. It wouldn't be the first time an American warship shot down a civilian jumbo jet by "accident." An Iranian Airbus-300 carrying 290 souls, mis-identified as a MIG Fighter, was engaged and destroyed by a surface-to-air missile fired from the USS Vincennes on 3 July 1988 in the Persian Gulf. Islamic avengers downed Pan Am 103 over Lockerbie, Scotland that December 21 killing 270 in retaliation. You don't actually suppose the U.S. Government would intentionally cover-up the shoot-down of a civilian airliner in American airspace do you?

The FBI with support of the media is doing all possible to focus on "right-wing radical conspiracy nuts" instead of finding out what destroyed TWA-800 and those aboard. Consider just a moment this list of "conspiracies." Did the government lie about each of these – and many more besides? Seventy-six percent of all Americans have said they don't trust government – do you think the USG is lying about TWA-800? Iran-Contra, U.S. war in Laos and Cambodia, CIA guns and drugs, Gulf War Syndrome, Vietnam Agent Orange, Noriega-CIA connection, POW cover-up, JFK killing, CIA bombing of Guatemala for United Fruit Company, Iraq/Saddam/US ties, Tuskegee testing of black Americans, Nuclear tests, CBR tests over America, etc.

FIRST THE RISE, THEN THE FALL

How many times have I mentioned the importance of precious metal coin over FRNs and stock in this newsletter? How many of you have turned your paper into gold? The Dow-Jones broke another "all time" record by piercing the 7100-point level. This basically means that it would cost $7,100 to purchase one share of stock from the 30 companies that currently make up the Dow. The deception comes in when people are made to believe that the "stock market" is doing well and deserves their investment. The fact is that only 36 companies are beating the market and of that 36 only four (GM, Coke, Microsoft, and Intel) have contributed one-fifth of all the growth. The other entries in the various stock markets have been losing ground.

I always carry a U.S. $20 gold coin in my wallet. I use the coin to make a point about our economy. Nine presidents ago (Roosevelt, Truman, Eisenhower, Kennedy, Johnson, Nixon, Carter, Reagan and Bush) the $20 gold piece and $20 Federal Reserve Note were worth exactly the same. Today it would take about 30 of the paper notes to purchase one coin. The $20 gold coin will still buy today what it bought 65 years ago, but the $20 bill has shrunk to a small fraction (it is worth nine cents today) of its original purchase power. Show the two examples of money to any small child. Ask which they would choose between the metal and paper?

There are some 5,000 coin dealers in America who would love to sell you gold and silver, but there are certain guidelines to follow. You should only deal with companies that have been in the business long enough to have a measurable track record. Insure the company has your coins in stock and ready to ship before sending them payment. Don't buy from a company that doesn't guarantee satisfaction (you should be able to send the coin back for a replacement if it doesn't measure up to your expectation) once you receive the coin. Only deal with a company that promises to buy back your coins when you decide to sell. The coin should be sent to you registered and insured. Make certain the company has brokers who are readily available to give you firm market quotes and help find buyers for rare coins. Don't buy coins from a dealer who charges any type of a buy-back fee. I have investigated many dealers, only one measures up: Swiss America. You may call them toll free by dialing 1-800-BUY-COIN.

You can purchase new bullion, old circulated "junk" and uncirculated numismatic coins. The bullion is priced slightly over "spot" for gold and silver, which can be determined by calling 1-800-289-2646. An ounce of gold and silver as of this writing costs $6.83 for an American Eagle silver dollar; a U.S. $50 gold piece sells for $367.50. Junk is generally sold by the bag and contains pre-1964 dimes, quarters, and half-dollars. A full bag represents $1,000 face value and sells today for $3,666.95. Older precious uncirculated coins are given a Mint State (MS) rating depending upon appearance. Those with some blemish rank in the lower MS 60s – an almost perfect specimen merits MS figures approaching 70. The higher the rating, older and rarer the coin the more its worth. Numismatic coins outperform bullion. An MS-61 $20 coin costs $560, an MS-64 is $1,300, and the MS-65 brings in $4,300. Morgan Silver Dollars of MS-64 caliber are worth $45. Call Rob Wetzel (800-289-2646) for details.

Frank Powers had gold coins when his U-2 Spy Plane went down over Russia. I've always worn a solid (24K) gold necklace when in foreign areas on dangerous assignments. 24K means 100%, 18K is 75%, 12K = 50%, etc. Only pure gold is valued overseas. I recommend every American have a mix of gold and silver U.S. coins. I have a sack of silver and collection of gold and silver bullion coins. The numismatic coins are your best performers. They will generally increase in value about 12% per year regardless of how the gold and silver markets fair. Every legitimate economic authority confirms that the American stock market is over due for a hard fall. James Davidson (Investors CIA), Lord Rees-Mogg (Former Editor-in-chief Times of London, personal advisor to Margaret Thatcher), Dr. Jack Wheeler (Reagan Doctrine), Dr. Marc Faber (original bear on Japan) all "GUARANTEE STOCK MARKET CRASH IN 1997!" TIME FOR US TO GET OUT

Woodrow Wilson received the Nobel Peace Prize, but the U.S. Senate rejected his League of Nations. Communist Alger Hiss formed the United Nations in 1945. Today there are 186 member nations. The most powerful sub-division is the UN Security Council. There have always been five permanent members (USA, England, France, Russia, and China) and 10 general members elected for two-year terms. Any one of the five permanent members had veto power. THE UN IS NOW EXPANDING THE COUNCIL TO 24 MEMBERS WITH NO VETO FOR THE PERMANENT FIVE! America pays almost one-third of the UN operating cost. With no veto power, the US becomes just one of 186 members. We should only pay 1/186th of the costs – BETTER YET, IT'S TIME AMERICA GET OUT OF THE UN! Already the US is just one nation with one vote in the World Trade Organization. It's time we re-read Washington's Farewell Address and the Monroe Doctrine.

FREEDOM CALL

I continue to broadcast over Talk America Radio, Monday-Friday 0700-0900 Pacific Time. The program can be heard over AM-FM stations, satellite (S-3, Chan 9, audio 6.8), Internet (www.talkamerica.com), and the second hour only via Short-wave over WWCR (12.160). A catalogue of past programs is available through America First, POB 10121, Jacksonville, Florida 32247. For $7.00 America First will send you both hours on quality audio-tape. Please include date of broadcast.

Denver area radio station, KHNC no longer broadcasts Freedom Call. Talk America Operations Officer Tom Star said that the station was promoting the program as their own and playing their own ads over Talk America's "national spots." Listeners should call KHNC, Johnstown, Colorado and speak to the station manager, Don Wiedeman. The commercial breaks at 21-24, 30-33, and 51-54 minutes after the hour can be used by local stations for their own ads. There is only a two-minute segment (38-40) that is reserved. KHNC broadcast their own advertisements in all spots. KHNC is free to carry Freedom Call as long as they abide by the simple and fair rules (leave the two-minute space alone).

If you would like to hear Freedom Call over a local station, call the station manager and ask them to contact Tom Star at 1-800-715-8331. Stations are free to down-link Talk America broadcasts at no charge. Talk America is the only syndicated programming available in original form 24-hours per day, seven days a week. Ask friends, family, neighbors, and others to call local stations and request Freedom Call with Bo Gritz. Keep up the pressure over the period of a few weeks. Call a variety of stations in your area. Tell them that the program can be recorded and delay-broadcast if it interferes with important local programming.

JERRY'S CORNER by Jerry Gillespie

WANTED by the FBI - Jesus Christ

You will never need to fear about turning down the wrong street or cornered by a group of thugs. You'll learn how to effectively ram, break a car barricade; how to do J and bootleg turns with the greatest of ease and safely. With expert instruction by Bo, Jim Gritz, and Scott Weekly your life and that of your family and friends will be lengthened - the whole purpose of SPIKE.

TRIAGE is a fascinating, detailed medical class given by Charlie McCowan to instruct you in how to make life or death decisions. In times of crises and serious injuries you must know who needs immediate medical treatment in order to save their life and who can be comforted until treatment can be rendered. This multi-tape set is only $75.00.

WOW! What a great time we had racing down the strip doing bootleg and J-turns. Now you can learn to do the same with our Pro-SPIKE Driver Manual. This and more great products available in the Spike Catalog.

SPIKE PHASE 11 VIDEO SET

In Phase 11 these exciting videos bring you in-depth education on Lock Manipulation. In Phase 2 of SPIKE you were given the basics of lock-manipulation learning about lock picks, tension tools, combination locks, etc. In Phase 11, our Advanced Course of Defense Against Restricted Entry (ADARE) you'll learn from Bo Gritz's Safe Manipulation - how to open safes quickly and easily, how to change safe combinations and much more. Did you really think your home and auto security system were protecting these items? Think again!!! Scott Weekly's Security Alarms will show you just how easily you can bypass these systems. You'll learn how to beat The Club, security and motion detector alarms and car alarms within a few seconds. Learn how unprotected your personal possessions really are. Jim Gritz's Vehicle Entry will give you instruction in the proper tools for entering any vehicle in no time at all. The tools necessary for your new career in locksmithing will be instrumental in helping you to secure those accounts of highest prestige. $75.00.

With this phase of training we offer some very sensitive and confidential information and manuals which can be ordered ONLY WITH THIS PHASE OF TRAINING. We have some special Lockmaster tools which enable you to get into any car, door, or window. Don't believe those commercials on the CLUB or DOOR CLUB.

SPIKE PHASE 12 VIDEO SET

Phase 12 "SPIKEMASTER" tops your training with four advanced and essential skills. Vic Pomel with Emergency Surgery prepares you to respond to life-threatening situations with life-saving measures involving invasive surgical procedures. Additionally, Bo Gritz will teach you how to use Hypnosis as a Substitute for Chemical Anesthesia. You will also be taught by Jim Gritz Community Defensive Battle Drills as an extension of personal and family protection. Scott Weekly will teach you Photo-Intelligence Techniques and show you how to obtain clear and precise pictures, developed by yourself — in the field! Methods from micro-copy of documents to serial photography will be covered. $75.00.

Learn how to hypnotize someone who has a fear of chemical anesthesia, dental surgery, childbirth or some other fear. Develop film in a box anywhere at anytime! Be an Army Ranger with our specialized training equipment!

SPECIALTY ITEMS

Also in our catalog you can order the following items:

Our SPIKE manuals on lockpicking, hypnosis, counter-terrorist driving and more!

"The New Money System"

"When Your Money Fails"

"AIDS! What the Government's Not Telling You. CENSORED!"

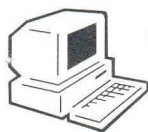

SPIKE t-shirts, caps, and food storage AT EXCEPTIONALLY LOW PRICES!

SPIKE DISTRIBUTOR PROGRAM

This exciting program is designed to help you prepare others for emergencies by offering them the SPIKE videos and products. You will also earn extra money for your efforts. This is not a multi-level marketing program yet you can recruit other distributors to help you in your marketing efforts.

By becoming a distributor you receive SPIKE tapes and products at even lower prices than the SPIKE price. For example, when you reach Level 3 you will, from that point forward, pay only $39.75 for each video set you order and offer for sale. The sales price on the videos are $75.00 so you make an immediate $35.25 per video. Also, you can introduce the program to other potential distributors and earn a commission on their sales. You earn a commission on everything you sell. No monthly requirements and the potential is phenomenal. On the order form simply write in your request for distributor information and we'll be happy to mail it out to you.

What Is The Bo Gritz CENTER FOR ACTION???

Center For Action (CFA) was started by Col. James "Bo" Gritz and his wife Claudia in 1989. Bo had spent over 30 years of his life serving in the U.S. Army. He is America's most decorated Green Beret Commander in the Vietnam War. In General William Westmoreland's best seller, "A Soldier's Report" Gen. Westmoreland dedicated a chapter to Bo and called it "THE American Soldier." Bo received 62 citations of valor.

After Vietnam Bo served as Commander of Special Forces in Latin America, Chief of Staff in the Pentagon, Congressional Officer for the Army and more. He holds three Master Degrees including Law Enforcement, Communications and Journalism.

Bo has led numerous POW/MIA rescue operations. It was during one of these that Bo was given the names of high government officials smuggling drugs by the drug Lord Khun Sa of Burma.

It was at this time in 1989 that Bo organized the Center For Action.

In 1991 Bo ran for President and asked Jerry Gillespie to join him as National Campaign Coordinator and currently serves as business partner and associate.

Bo was successful in 1992 of rescuing Randy Weaver and his girls from murder by the U.S. government. Bo testified before the U.S. Senate regarding Ruby Ridge and negotiated with the Freemen in Jordan, Montana.

In 1993 Center For Action started SPIKE (Specially Prepared Individuals for Key Events) Delta Force training and traveled through out the nation teaching special preparedness courses. After 3 and 1/2 years of training, thousands of students have attended the training in person or purchased the videos.

That specialized training in video form is now available to the general public. The Center continues its SPIKE training by offering special SPIKES, such as Airborne, Scuba and others.

The Bo Gritz Center For Action newsletter is published monthly. Founded in 1991, the newsletter focuses on current events within the united states of America and the world and how the events may affect you, the subscriber. The annual subscription rate is $30.00 within the United States, $36.00 outside the United States and $48.00 for overseas mailings. There are no refunds on the newsletter.

This newsletter provides the "other side of the story" you may not be hearing from the national press. Col. Gritz's comments are based upon his 30+ years of military service with many of those years in secret operations and working with the government. From time to time Col. Gritz will recommend people who may be considered experts in different areas. This is not an endorsement but should be considered carefully by the subscriber.

All rights are reserved. Written consent must be obtained in advance for any reproduction of this newsletter, however, portions of this newsletter may be reproduced providing FULL CREDIT is given to the editor and publisher.
